

of actual users and people with similar interests living below the poverty line. These groups were given vocational training in the maintenance of nurseries, dona-pattal (leaf cups and plate) making, poultry, fishery, goat rearing, bamboo crafts, carpentry, etc., and were guided in its functioning.

Strategies for Watershed Management.

Sl. No.	Area	Strategies
1	Hillocks	Trenching
		Plantation of fruit & forest species
		Seeding of trees, bushes and grass seeds on trench bunds and inter-spaces
		Stone dykes & cattle-proof trenching
2	Nalas & Natural Drainage Systems	Loose boulder check dams
		Earthen embankments for water harvesting
		Gabion structures
3	Barren, Marginal & Waste land	Trenching
		Plantation
		Seeding of grasses and legumes
		Fencing
4	Fallow & Pasture land	Pasture development
		Cattle proof trenching
5	Cultivated land	Bunding
		Contour cultivation
		Fodder production
		Agro-forestry (agri-horticulture)
		Water harvesting
		Demonstration of HYV, fertilization, green manuring, in-situ moisture conservation, etc.